

I support CapTel as an enhanced voice carry over service. I'm retired but the CapTel would have been very helpful to me at work because there were times that I needed help with phone calls that I answered by voice. I would prefer CapTel to current VCO relay service. This is truly a breakthrough for people with hearing loss that have good speech.